

Workers' Compensation and Employers' Liability Policy — Jane's Kitchen LLC

1 Declarations

Named Insured: Jane's Kitchen LLC. Business Description: Full-service restaurant, 20 employees.
Governing Classification: Restaurant — food and beverage service employees.

2 Coverage A — Workers' Compensation

We will pay, on behalf of the insured, the statutory workers' compensation benefits required in the state where the injury occurs for bodily injury by accident or disease sustained by an employee arising out of and in the course of employment. Benefits include medical treatment, wage replacement, and disability benefits as required by state law, with no dollar limit, as mandated by statute.

3 Coverage B — Employers' Liability

We will pay damages the insured is legally obligated to pay because of bodily injury to an employee that arises out of and in the course of employment, and that is not covered by the workers' compensation statute (for example, a spouse's loss-of-consortium claim). Limit: $500,000 per accident, $500,000 per employee for disease, $500,000 policy limit for disease.

4 Exclusions

This policy does not cover injuries to employees intentionally caused by the insured, injuries arising from an employee's intoxication where the insured can show the injury was caused by that intoxication, or liability the insured assumes under a contract that would not otherwise attach.

5 Limits of Insurance

Coverage A benefits are paid at the statutory amount with no dollar cap. Coverage B (Employers' Liability) limit: $500,000 per accident / $500,000 per employee (disease) / $500,000 policy limit (disease).
